

“Slices of Light”

September 2007

Volume 1 – issue 2

From the Staff

The Staff of Enota Glace, LLC wishes to thank everyone who has supported us over the 2007 season. You have all helped in so many ways – distributing flyers, brainstorming, giving us ideas and the benefit of your collective experience. We couldn't do it without you (nor would we want to!) You have volunteered your time helping us set up and clean up; you have been most joyous and respectful of the land and our purpose. Thank you all again.

A “Bonus” Event on October 28!

We look forward to seeing you at our next event on October 28th, at the Brier Inn in Lewisburg, WV. Titled “Intuition 101: The Sixth Sense”, the talks are intended to present tools for consciously applying one's intuition to everyday situations. We have engaged three local speakers:

- Judy Seifer, Psychotherapist,
- Leah Stansell, Intuitive, and
- Edith Gibson, Sensitive.

Story of Enota Glace, LLC

It seems fitting that we begin with our President, Leah Krista Stansell, as she has held the seed of Enota Glace since before she and her husband purchased the land of which it is a part – indeed, since before many of us even had the pleasure of knowing her. Leah Krista has been a teacher and consultant for many years, sharing her unique gifts to assist us all. When she asked a number of her students to participate in the venture of creating a spiritual retreat centre, we all gave her a resounding “yes!” and life has never been the same since!

All of us come from different backgrounds – financial, graphic design, boutique owner, corporate executive assistant – and none of us (save our friend and colleague Carol Merriamna) had ever had a business of our own. Sometimes we put the “cart before the horse”, but we always unscramble it somehow, and everything works out.

Message Stones are a hit

We are pleased to note that our new “Message Stones” (introduced at the May 19th event) have been very well received. These messengers from Spirit are carefully selected by Loren Adena, and their “songs” channeled by Leah Krista. Each stone's unique message is transcribed and given to its new steward, along with the date its message was received. We are pleased to offer these tools for attunement at each “Slices of Light” event.
